8. Participants will demonstrate their species prior to their class starting, to show the other participants the proper way of showing their animal.
9. The chairman shall be responsible for securing animals, as well as proper show equipment, and judges for each species.
10. Attire for participants to wear will be white pants for dairy and dairy goats, khakis for beef, sheep, swine, and meat goat. A QAC Fair shirt will be given to each participant. Please wear that t-shirt for the contest.
11. At the conclusion of the show a sweepstakes class will take place. Two past winners of supreme showman and the current winner will compete. The 3 participants will put their species in a drawing. The chairman will draw which species will be shown from the 3. Judges will judge the 3 participants on showmanship of the species drawn to determine the sweepstakes winner.
